Only Did His Duty as He Saw It.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Stark, the well-known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not be without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please." For sale by all leading druggists.

BALL TEAM HOODOED.

What Sporting Editor Says of Pittsburgh Club.

A. R. Cratty, sporting editor of the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Chronicle-Telegraph, and wife are registered at the Kenyon. Mr. Cratty is one of the oldest sporting editors in Pittsburgh, and is known as the "Dean of the sport bunch." He stands high in Barney Dreyfuss's circle of friends, and is said to have sprung the big end of the baseball stories of the Pirates. "Dreyfuss is making a hard fight for second place," said Mr. Cratty yesterday. "It is impossible now to hope for more, and in fact the little magnate is said to be able to land as high as second. The Champions have been up against a hard proposition all year. His players have been crippled or sick, and new men signed in the smaller leagues for immediate delivery have failed to materialize.

"Clark has been out of the game all year. Leever has been crippled and several others incapacitated. Then, just when we thought the team was going on all right, there was that 'bus accident,' when the team was in Philadelphia, and every man was shaken and bruised so badly that none were fit to play.

"Honus Wagner, the greatest player in the country, is playing in hard luck just now. Wagner started an ankle several weeks ago, and although he was only out of the game a week, he is playing now against the orders of his physician.

"There has been a hoodoo following the team all year and we think ourselves mighty lucky to land as near the top as we are."

GETTING READY FOR GAME.

An Enthusiastic Football Meeting Will Be Held Today—To Entertain Boulder.

Coach Maddock is now whipping his hand of hussies into shape and putting on the hard strokes that are expected to bring results in next Saturday's game with Boulder. Two sets of backs have been selected, and during the long practice held yesterday afternoon their capacity for work was fully tested. Half a sub line has also been picked out, and every practice will find them hard at work.

Assisted Maddock.

Last night's practice was a telling one. To assist Coach Maddock in his work there was present Coach Callahan of high school fame and Dick Ogelsby, formerly end on the Rose Polytechnic first eleven. Maddock initiated the tactics into the mysteries of the Yout system. Callahan, assisted by Messrs. Callahan, Channing and Plummer, will proceed to patch up all the holes made.

Students Are Interested.

Two hundred students walked up and down the side lines last night and watched the work of the team during its three hours practice. The campus is daily crowded by spectators, whose presence serves to spur on the rivals in their fights for position on the team.

Tonight's practice will consist of a friendly scrimmage with the High School eleven. By this method all the weak spots in the team will be exposed, and at the conclusion of the practice Coach Maddock, assisted by Messrs. Callahan, Channing and Plummer, will proceed to patch up all the holes made.
